📍 SITES & ATTRACTIONS

TOMB OF ARAFAT

Following the death of Yasser Arafat at age 75 in November 2004, he was buried on the grounds of the Mukataa, the compound that served as his headquarters in Ramallah. Three years later, an elaborate mausoleum opened on the site. An honor guard stands watch at the memorial, which is open to visitors. The Mukataa (or Presidential Compound) continues to serve as a headquarters for the Palestinian Authority and contains local governmental offices

BEIR ZEIT

Located 4 miles north of Ramallah is Birzeit which literally translates to “Well of (olive) oil referring to the wells in which inhabitants historically stored virgin pressed olive oil. With a population of some 6000, Birzeit is also famous for its university, one of Palestine’s flagship educational institutes. Much of the surrounding land consists of olive trees which historically was a source of sustenance for what was primarily an agrarian society. This has led to a business expansion within the town consisting of several restaurants, cafes, internet cafes, and salons. Beir Zeit is also homem to the annual maftool festival.

JIFNA

The village of Jifna lies around 5 km north of Ramallah on the road to Beir Zeit. This small scenic village lies on the old Roman road connecting Jerusalem to Nablus, and it was considered at the time the second most important city after Jerusalem. It was once an important Roman – Byzantine city known as Gophna of Josefus. Today this little village is a beautiful summer escape. The village has two churches. The Latin church built in 1859 stands opposite an old Byzantine Church known as St. George’s church. A winery was also found in the eastern border of the village. There are two small citadels in the village whose origins are attributed to the crusaders or the Muslims.

TAYBEH

Located a few Km east of Ramallah some 30 km north east of Jerusalem between Jerusalem and Jericho, is the Palestinian Christian village of Taybeh. Sitting on Mount Asur, with a population of nearly 1400, Taybeh is a predominantly Christian village. Recently Taybeh became home to the only Palestinian Beer; Taybeh Beer. Every year in October, the village hosts locals and international visitors for the annual Taybeh Beer Festival. Besides this modern fame, Taybeh is also rich in history and culture. The famous Saint George Church which dates back to the Byzantine period is located in the center of the town. Visitors can admire its ruins behind Melkite (Greek Orthodox) church. Next the Church, ancient mosaics were recently uncovered. The main agricultural activity in the village is the production of olive oil. In fact, of the some 380 families of the village, nearly 300 own olive trees and cultivate them for oil.

BITTIN

The Palestinian village of Beitin is located about 5 km northeast of Ramallah. Also known as the Bethel (House of God) of the old Testament, archaeological finding in the village have dated back to the Chalcolithic Period and include pottery and fint tools. Byzantines built a church and monastery here that the Crusaders turned into their stronghold, and later Salah Eddin into a mosque in 1892. An old tower, known as the tower of Beitin is believed to be the site where Abraham, on his way from Hebron to Nablus, built an altar. It is also believed to be the site where Jacob dreamt of a ladder reaching up to Heaven.

ABBOUD

Located some 30 km northwest of Ramallah is the Palestinian village of Aboud. Also known as the City of Flowers, About is located some 450 meters above sea level. The village has a beautiful mountainous landscape cultivated with olive trees.

Besides its rich natural heritage, Aboud is equally rich in its historical treasures. It has several churches, monasteries and mosques build on foundation dating back to Byzantine, Ottoman and Crusader periods. The oldest Church in the village is the Messieh Church which is located in the center of the village. Other churches include Simons Church, Saint Todros Church, Saint Anastasia Church. The Virgin Mary Church is built on the foundations of a 5th century church and was last renovated in the 11th century.

THE RAMALLAH CULTURAL PALACE & MAHMOUD DARWISH'S GRAVE

Completed in 2004, the eight yearlong project was supported by the Government of Japan and overseen by the United Nations Development Program. Today, the complex is a landmark in Ramallah and a source of pride for the locals. The complex contains a 736 seat auditorium, exhibition galleries and conference facilities. It hosts all types of event ranging from Classical music and hip hop to business conferences and exhibitions. Adjacent on the left side is the grave of the famous Palestinian poet Mahmoud Darwish. Born in 1941 in the village of Al Birwa in the Galilee, Darwish was a Palestinian poet and author who won numerous awards for his literary output and was regarchtower ded as the Palestinian national poet. Lots of his poetry tackled loss, dispossession and exile, portraying Palestine as a lost paradise. Darwish had published over 30 volumes of poetry, many of which have been translated into English and other languages.

BRITISH COUNCIL

The British Council creates international opportunities for the people of the UK and other countries and builds trust between them worldwide. We are a Royal Charter charity, established as the UK's international organisation for educational opportunities and cultural relations. Our 7000 staff in over 100 countries work with thousands of professionals and policy makers and millions of young people every year through English, arts, education and society programmes. We earn over 75% of our annual turnover of nearly £700 million from services which customers pay for, education and development contracts we bid for and from partnerships. A UK Government grant provides the remaining 25%. We match every £1 of core public funding with over £3 earned in pursuit of our charitable purpose. For over 60 years, we have been working to build stronger ties and greater mutual understanding between Palestinians and people in the UK through our different activities. We operate in 5 Palestinian cities through our offices and contact points.

WHY CHOOSE VISITPALESTINE.PS:

Are you planning a trip to Palestine and the Holy Land? Are you already in Palestine? Are you visiting on a Pilgrimage, a business trip, as part of a wider regional tour? Are you looking for leisure activities, day tours, cultural events, listing and opening hours?

Planning a trip can be a time consuming task. We are here to make it simple.... Rather than surfing through endless websites, we offer the optimal solution by providing a centralized and comprehensive travel guide to Palestine. We incorporate quality and quantity into our multifunctional and dynamic online presence with fresh and up to date content and imagery. You can surf our site, plan and book directly with our listed service providers or choose what interests you and have us do the planning and the booking for you.

Our strategy is simple... we go where our customers go... To this end, we are continuously developing and upgrading our online presence. We have just launched our new mobil website which provides visitors with a travel guide when they most need it; WHILE ON THE GO. Our new mobile site is compatible with over 5,000 mobile devices and aims to service the thousands of visitors who come to Palestine and the region every year.

Finally, we will also be unveiling Palestine's first Travel Guide iPhone and iPad application. Developing a travel application comes in an effort to capitalize on and better service the ever growing number of smart-phone users. With our travel application, users can download the app and not require any internet connectivity once they arrive (except for basic features requiring internet connection ie. Emails, sharing on social media etc...).

ADVERTISE WITH VISITPALESTINE.PS:

While we try to ensure that all tourism service providers are listed on the site for free, we also offer various advertising opportunities for companies to better capitalize on the exposure and traffic generated through our site. For more information please check the link below:
